Flights from Ambala Cantt this month

The ruling BJP government in Haryana has plans to start flights from Ambala domestic airport this month. State civil aviation and health minister Kamal Gupta who inspected the under-construction domestic airport at Ambala Cantonment on Wednesday said that the first flight from here will fly to Ayodhya, followed by flights to Jammu and other destinations. Gupta held that though it was initially planned to start the domestic flights from August 15, there could be a delay of about a week. He said that having an airport in any area accelerates development, benefits the entire region, and creates new employment opportunities.

REEL VS REAL | Vaishnaw says Congress spreading lies, government working hard to make loco pilots lives better

After Thakur's jaat jibe, rail min's dig at LoP Rahul

Gaurav Vivek Bhatnagar

NEW DELHI

Railway Minister Ashwini Vaishnaw on Thursday took a dig at the Congress leader, who had met and visited loco pilots at New Delhi railway station last month saying, "Hum reel banane wale log nahi, mehnat karne wale log hai," (We are not the people who make reels, we are the ones who work hard).

Vaishnaw accused the Congress of spreading fear among people through its misinformation campaign and asked "is it trying to create fear among 2 crore people who travel by trains daily?"

On the issue of the working condition of loco pilots, which was flagged by Gandhi, the Railway Minister said, their average working and rest times were established in 2005 and subsequent amendments in 2016 had provided additional facilities to them.

Vaishnaw said the working conditions for these loco pilots have also been improved through air-conditioning of their 7,000 loco cabs and 558 running rooms.

The minister said the Opposition which is raking up the issue of safety should answer for its work during the 58 years it was in power.

In this period, not one km of Automatic Train Protection was provided, he said, adding that the Opposition's praise and criticism was also selective depending on which party the minister belonged. On Tuesday, former minister Anurag Thakur had attacked Gandhi on the issue of caste during a discussion on the Budget in the Lok Sabha.

His comments on who all were entitled to raise the caste census issues were seen by Gandhi and other opposition leaders as a direct attack on him and were subsequently expunged by the Chair.

However, Prime Minister Narendra Modi had shared the video clip of Thakur's speech and praised it as "a perfect mix of facts and humour, exposing the dirty politics of the INDI Alliance."

The Prime Minister's endorsement of Thakur's speech has been a major signal to BJP's strategy of personally attacking the Congress leader

Another young BJP MP, Tejasvi Surya, on Wednesday accused Gandhi, who was earlier MP from Wayanad for the landslide and floods there for ignoring the warnings due to "political pressure and pressure from religious groups" who had done illegal encroachments there.

The BJP appears to be working on a strategy to discredit Gandhi wherever possible as a means to counter the new found energy and resurgence in the Opposition following the recent Lok Sabha polls in which their numbers improved significantly.

Saffron bonhomie with 'prized' Adhir

Veteran Cong man's future on the threshold of a change

Aritra Singha

Amid confusion over 'former' state Congress chief Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury's stand in his party, BJP's Rajya Sabha MP Shamik Bhattacharya wants Chowdhury to join the saffron camp to fight TMC supremo Mamata Banerjee.

"Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury is a good player but in the wrong party. It is clear that by remaining in Congress, Adhir cannot be vocal against Banerjee. Adhir has been deceived by the Congress and Mallikarjun Kharge has made it clear. If he wants to fight against the atrocities of TMC and Banerjee, Adhir should BJP," join the Bhattacharya.

BJP MP Saumitra Khan said that Adhir should float his own party. "As far as I know, he will never join TMC. I have no idea whether he is intending to join the BJP. He should start his own party and it will do good in Murshidabad, Malda," said Khan.

The miffed "former" state Congress president had questioned how he could go "soft" on TMC while the ruling party is heckling and beating grassroot Congress workers.

spokesperson Shantanu Sen said, "If he had paid heed to our seat sharing ratio, Congress would have got another MP."

Both national political parties, the Congress and the BJP, are likely to appoint new chiefs for state units in West Bengal soon.

Sources say BJP has not reached a decision. One of the speculated names is Dilip Ghosh, former Bengal BJP President who was replaced after the 2021 Assembly Elections.

Ghosh's birthday

Amid alleged infighting within BJP's state unit Leader

Adhikari on Thursday celebrated former state president Dilip Ghosh's birthday at the Assembly. The two leaders were seen offering sweets to each other.

The TMC termed it as a "fake bonhomie", while BJP leader Sajal Ghosh said that "false" narratives are being made about infighting.

Bill to the select committee. After the bill was passed in the Assembly, several legislators met with the Chief Minister separately and suggested various amendments.

It is believed that since the bill could not be halted directly after its passage in the Assembly, the decision to refer it to the select committee in the Legislative Council was done to delay the process and the enactment by two months.

The decision to halt the bill in the Legislative Council was met with approval from many BJP legislators, who felt that a thorough discussion should precede any final decision on the matter.

Rs 10 lakh for a slipper, He turned it down. The sum could have changed his fortune but chose to retain the footwear stitched by Congress MP Rahul Gandhi and plans to place it in a glass case.

Since the surprise visit to his humble shop in the Vidhayak Nagar area on the outskirts of Sultanpur by the leader of the opposition in the Lok Sabha, officials from various government departments have reached out to him to enquire about his problems. Chet Ram has become a local celebrity. Gandhi briefly stopped at Chet's shop on July 26 and asked about his family and his problems even as he tried his hand at stitching footwear and pasting a shoe sole.

"My world has completely changed. Nobody knew me before, but now, people come to my shop and take selfies with me," he said, adding that he was not going to part with his "lucky slipper" at any cost.
