Eco Hotels and Resorts Limited

Announces New Property in Ayodhya to Tap Growing Hospitality Demand

Eco Hotels and Resorts Limited, a sustainable hospitality company has signed a strategic deal to develop a new hotel property in Ayodhya, reinforcing the company's expansion plans in high-potential religious and cultural tourism destinations.

The upcoming property will feature 33 rooms, along with a swimming pool, landscaped lawn, and rooftop restaurant, designed to provide a premium and convenient stay for visitors. Strategically located with direct access to the main highway and just 7 km from the Ram Janmabhoomi Temple, the hotel is positioned to cater to the growing number of tourists and devotees visiting the region.

Mr. Vinod Kumar Tripathi, Chairman of Eco Hotels and Resorts Limited, commented:

"The Ayodhya property represents a key step in our strategy to expand into emerging hospitality markets driven by spiritual and cultural tourism. With visitor numbers in the region on a strong upward trajectory, there is significant demand for quality accommodation, and we are well-positioned to meet it."

He added, "Forecasts suggest that approximately 10 million visitors are expected annually, highlighting the market potential. This property is designed to deliver both comfort and convenience, aligning with Eco Hotels' broader vision for sustainable and scalable growth."

The new Ayodhya hotel is part of Eco Hotels' ongoing efforts to strengthen its presence in strategic locations across India, combining high service standards with operational efficiency to cater to evolving traveller expectations.
